LETTERS: A FEW LINES

Ingram, Junetta

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Jul 21, 1928; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender pg. A3

A FEW LINES

Dear Rud: Just a few lines to ley you know that I am not dead. I still hope that I have not lost my membership in the club. I received my card and button last year and I lived in the flood district and of course it was destroyed. I then lost all my enthusiasm in the club.

I was ashamed to ask for another. but I will appreciate one now and would not let it get destroyed this time. So to show you that I am taking new interest in the club, I am sending my registration blank and also a poem I composed. Please tell all members to write to me for I am very, very lonesome. I will answer all letters promptly. --Sincerely yours, Junetta Ingram, 1817 Chester St. Little Rock, Ark.

LETTERS: THANKS, BUD Bud

I

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Jan 31, 1925; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender pg. 17

THANKS, BUD

Dear Editor: Just a line or two to thank you for publishing my letter saveral weeks ago. I sure was happy when I saw it in the paper. Since my letter appeared in the paper, i have received lots of interesting letters and the good part of it is. I have answered them all. I am no longer lonesome, as I was in 1 224. Within a few days I am going to write some poems and send in some more good things for the Defender Junior, so our little page will be the best in the paper. Guess this is all.— From James, Wilson, 2223 Cottage t t Grove Ave., Chicago, Ill. i

LONESOME GIRL

Dear Bud: I am a lonesome girl. I haven't received a letter in such a long time. Will you please see that the $ members of the club drop me a line or two? You will find enclosed a poem. Hope that it will come up to the stand-ard of the club. Will send in some-Hope that it will send in some and of the club. Will send in some thing next week. Much luck to you and thing next week. This is all. 1 the rest of the members. This is all.-Sincerely, Sarah Louise Brown, Box 1 ŧ 265, Lynch, Ky. 1

A FEW LINES

Dear Bud: Just a few lines to let you know that I havn't forgotten the club and I am trying as hard as I can to Tell become a 100 per cent Billiken. Tell all the Billikens I am in need of mail. As I said before you may look for some-4 thing good for the Defender Junlor. Good luck—From Callie McCloud, 3013 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, Ill. McCloud, 3013

THANK YOU, BUD

THANK YOU, BUD Dear Bud: I thank you kindly for publishing my letter. Although I have not received my card and button yet. I really feel like I am a Billiken now. Why? I have received 15 of the nicest letters. Geel but I am just tickled to death. I am president of the Jolly Teens' club In Cleveland, and I shall do we utmeet in Inducencing my 35 mem. my utmost in influencing my 35 mem-Wishing you Wishing you hers to become Billikens. Wishing you and all the Billikens a happy and pros-perous year, I am-Sincerely yours. 1 year, I am-Sinceres iona Martin, 6519 Central Ave., yours, ilss Anona i

Cleveland, Ohio, Note-Well, folks, here's another extraordinary Billiken, one who wants to do everything she can to make the club grow. It's up to each and everyone of us to choose our own way to shine and nake everyhody take notice. Do some i thing oig like Miss Martin.-Bud.

LETTERS: A FEW LINES

Bedford, Madelyn The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Jan 3, 1925; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender pg. 19

A FEW LINES. Dear Bud: Just a few lines to thank you for printing my letter and I've received about a dozen answers so far and I'm really lickled. Please tell the Billikens that I'm in Portland, Ore. now instead of Twio Falls. I'm strivling to be 100 per cent.—From a Bud Billiken, Madelyn Bedford, 293 Cherry St., Portland, Ore.

POEMS: THE BUD BILLIKEN CLUB

Paris, Ella Mae The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Apr 24, 1926; ProQuest pr A6

THE BUD BILLIKEN CLUB By Elia Mae Back I'm a member of the B B C And am as happy as I can be When things so wrong and I feel blue. f'll tell you exactly what I do i simply to a Billiken mail A letter full o' news without fall, To correspond is real great fun. 'Tis greater still with the Billikens, There are Billikens, yes, in every state And the editor plays square; at any Tate No assessments are attached to you. Clubs like this one are very few. I'm trying to do somthing day by day To advance the club in every way: its name rings now in every land Everyone knows about the Billiken hand become a member 100 per cent and 1110 I'll tell you what you have to do-Just take a blank and fill it out: It will bring you joy without a doubt. Then write to a Billiken every day, As a letter a day will drive the blues 8 11 2 1 Cram it full o' interesting news, You'll be the winner, you can't lose, Then send a contribution to the club each week. And the Billikens will you friendship SPA2 They'll write to you, one and all-We're just a happy hand, that's all,

Rules of Bud Billiken Club

(Clio this out and carry it to the next meeting of the Billiken club.)

OBJECTS OF THE CLUB

FIRST-To teach our boys and girls to appreciate art, literature and science.

SECOND-To help develop talents of our boys and girls and give them an outlet for their expressions.

THIRD-To teach them the value of reading weekly and daily newspapers.

FOURTH-To bring them before the public.

FIFTH—To acquaint them with boys and girls in the United States and foreign countries, who are striving for higher ideals.

SINTH-To teach love for church and Christian workers and a fuller appreciation for the words, "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother."

RULES FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE BUD BILLIKEN CLUB

1. You must be a regular reader of The Chicago Defender to become a member of the Bud Billiken club.

2. Each member must send in interesting stories and pictures, write newsy letters and answer letters written to you.

3. Each member must show evidence to the branch club president that he has written and received at least two letters from members of other branch clubs before he is eligible for the honor roll.

4. You must write neatly and only on one side of the paper. signing your name and address plainly at the bottom of the sheet.

5. You must not copy the works of others and sign your name to it.

6. Every member must read the interesting features in the Billiken page in The Chicago Defender and discuss same at weekly meetings of the branch club.

7. You must extend the hand of fellowship to sister and brother Billikens when they are seen with the Billiken card and button.

8. Each member must attend the weekly meetings of the Bud Billiken branch club. If no club has been formed in your city then it is your duty to organize one. Write Bud Billiken, 3435 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill., for particulars.

9. You must go to bed each night with a Billiken smile and promise never to frown when mother says go on an errand or wash the dishes.

10. Every member must be a real booster of The Chicago Defender and agree to interest at least five grownups in purchasing The Chicago Defender weekly.

"THE BUD BILLIKEN CLUB"

Houston, Virginia The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Apr 30, 1927; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender pg. Al1

"THE BUD BILLIKEN CLUB"

Why do I stand in the doorway In the heat of the midday sun Watching the street with eaer eye And hushed and hated breath?

Why, haven't you heard the news? I've joined the Bud Billiken club. And it's time for the mail man now And he will soon be around. I hope he brings me many letters

From Billikens old and young. For I am prepared an answer all And tell them all the news. I'll tell them all how glad I am to be A member of this wonderful club And how I shall try to sing .

Its praises to everyone. So here's three cheers for Bud Billiken. May fortune smile on him. Three more shall for those members be Who'll find time to write to me. --Virginia Houston, 210 W. Eighth St., Fulton, Mo.